A black and white photograph of a golf course. A dirt path or fairway leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by rows of mature trees. The trees have dense, leafy canopies that create a dappled light effect on the ground. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

President's Homecoming Message

It is a pleasure to welcome the friends of Coahoma Junior College to the 1978 homecoming events. Your presence and your support tend to strengthen our commitment to serve the needs of the many students, young and old, who have enrolled here at the college that cares.

New facilities, new programs, and a strengthened, dedicated faculty have enabled us to better carry out our commitment to service. We believe that an informed, educated citizenry is a productive citizenry. Our commitment is that of increasing the productivity of the human resources of our community.

We especially welcome our graduates and former students who have come home to cheer the tenacious Tigers. It's HOMECOMING: Let's make it great in '78.

James E. Miller, President

Coahoma Junior College

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The 1979 Sophomore Class of Coahoma Junior College, like other graduating classes across the nation, entered college with aspirations, mixed emotions, and goals. During the course of two years, however, many, if not all, of their problems of decision-making were solved: to go to college or not to go, what to major in, which senior college to attend, and so on. In addition to these decisions, some concerned themselves with the kinds of activities in which to participate.

In August of 1977, 502 academic full-time day Freshmen entered Coahoma, 101 Technical full-time day, and 106 Vocational, for a total of 709. Of this 709, some gained immediate recognition as we chose our class favorites: Lenora Jackson and Corry Harper as the Most Versatile; James McCoy and Rychelle Liggins, Most Athletic; Best School Spirit, Betty Tenner and Lawrence Self; for Most Humorous, Oscar Jones and Gloria Collins; Mr. and Miss Afro, Angela Branch and Willie Clark; Thaddeus Edwards and Shirley Meeks were chosen as Most Attractive; Patricia Nelson and Cleodis Blackshire, Best Dressed; Dan Christian and Christine Abby were the Most Likely to Succeed; Our Intellectual two were Karl Fisher and Ruth Lewis; Melvin Kinnard and Cassandra Liggins, Most Popular; the Friendliest and Most Dependable were Ruby Murry, Michael Self, Sandra McNeal and Billy Martin, respectively. The Most Religious were Annie Ruth Jones and Chester Rosebur; and our Most Courteous were Samuel Lewis and Lela Young.

The students selected as the leaders of this promising class were Karl Fisher, President; Derrick Payne, Vice-President; Martha Henderson, Secretary and Barbara Lloyd, Asst. Secretary.

The year wore on, and when the going got tough, the tough got going. All of us however, did not get going and roughly 15% decided that college was not their "cup of tea" when the semester changed. Of those who did get going several achieved distinction. The athletes were: in football: Bly Martin, Ben Turner, Anthony Reed, Kenny Bates, Nathaniel Thomas, James McCune, Willie Taylor, Lamar Gandy, LeAndrew Lloyd, David Parrish, Johns McGee and Willie Moton. In Basketball for men; Robert Morris, Don Scott, Fred Davis, James McCoy and Michael and Lawrence Self. For women; Debbie Mumford, Bonnie McCray, Joy Mosley, Teresa Price and Rychelle Liggins.

In the area of academics, Larry Ford, Beverly Perry, Willie Taylor, Jerry Bryant, Linda Robinson, Sandra Vanburen, Gloria Johnson, Robert Morris, Deborah Wiley and Sherri Criss, were our shining stars.

In August 1978 only 482 of us returned. Three hundred and eighty eight academic, 49 Technical and 45 Vocational. The attrition rate was astonishing but we forged ahead.

Having gained some experience, we now selected our leaders: Cleodis Blackshire, President; Stanley Lott, Vice President; Bernita Harris, Secretary; and Sherri Criss, Asst. Secretary. Next, we diligently selected class favorites: Most Religious, Eula Mosby and James McCune; Most Studious, Deborah Wiley and Robert Morris; Most Athletic, Romona McCastle and James McCoy; Annette Thomas and Willie Molden were the Most Likely to Succeed; Gary Dancer and Carolyn Davis became Mr. and Miss Afro; Most Attractive, Cleodis Blackshire and Bonnie McCray; Friendliest, Teresa Price and Michael Self; Most Popular, Linda Scott and Corry Harper; Most Courteous, Dorothy Needly and Billy Martin; Most Dependable, Beverly Perry and David Jackson; Most Humorous, Chan Crockett and Jerry Bynum; The Best Dressed were Patricia Nelson and Haywood Thompson; Most Intellectual, Sherry McCoy and Larry Ford; The Best School Spirit, Edward Fields and Levonne Banks. And last, but certainly not the least were our Most Talented, Angela Branch and Derrick Payne.

Then, as before, the second semester came and the attrition rate played havoc on the class. This time however, it claimed only 10% of us. Still driving on, in spite of obvious setbacks, the majority finished. There were several individual achievements that merited distinction in both the athletic and academic fields.

The most notable of all distinctions however, was accomplished by the class as a whole. Of all the clubs and class organizations on campus, Sophomores were chosen to lead 97% of them. This was in direct support of the class slogan: "Today's Students are Tomorrow's Leaders."

Graduation 1978

Dr. Jake Harris
Commencement Speaker

Congratulations!

By the power vested . . .

President Miller, These candidates . . .

I'm proud of myself.

I finally got the chance.

Black Emphasis Month Celebration

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Dr. Aaron E. Henry is a distinguished citizen of the City of Clarksdale, Mississippi, and

Whereas, he is a graduate of Coahoma Agricultural High School, and

Whereas, he is the donor of the Aaron E. Henry Citizenship Award given at Coahoma Junior College each year, and

Whereas, he is one of the benefactors of this institution, and

Whereas, he is the source of inspiration to aspiring young

Black people, and

Whereas, he is one of the leading contributors to the political and social welfare of mankind, and

Whereas, he is an outstanding and distinguished example of Black achievement,

I, James E. Miller, with the power vested in me as President of this institution, hereby proclaim on this campus, this day, February 15, 1979, as Aaron E. Henry Day.

Editor's Message

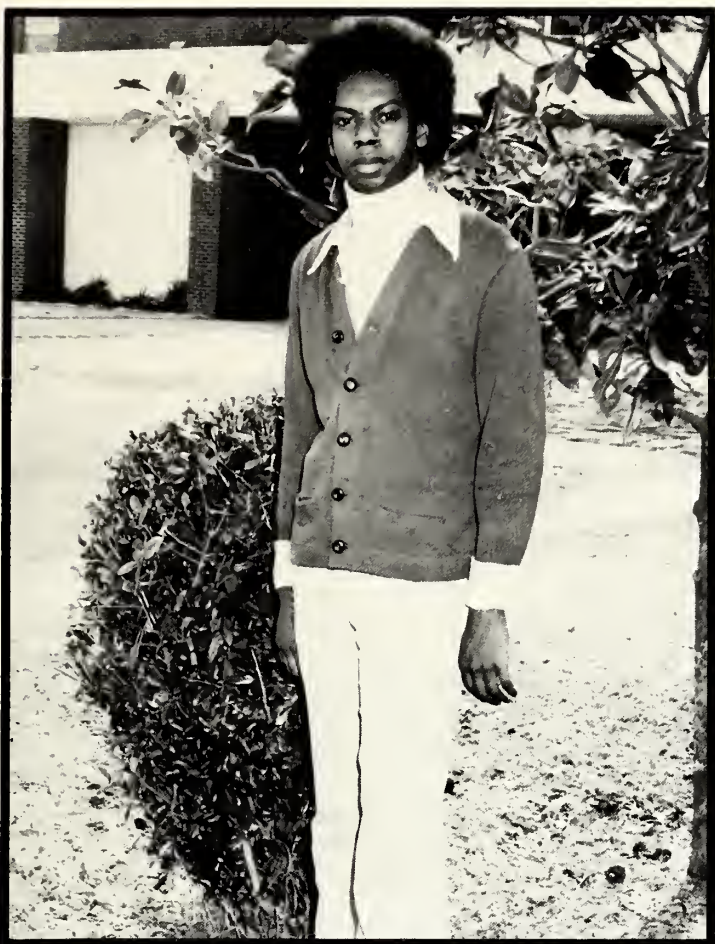

Greetings My Fellow Coahomans,

We have worked very hard on the Coahoman to give you a publication that you can be proud of. We had our share of problems, but we kept on keeping on.

A large number of persons started with us at the beginning of the year, but they slowly dropped by the wayside. Those who survived are included in our staff.

My thanks goes out to those staff members who continued, our hard working photographers and our wonderful sponsors who kept things rolling when I couldn't. It took a whole lot of doing, but we did it.
